ROOSEVELT'S AIDE CONTINUES SILENT AT TEXTILE MEET

Committee Studied Demand For Elimination Of Processing Tax

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 26.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's personal representative, Marvin McIntyre, continued his role of silent observer at the convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association today as its resolutions committee studied a demand for the elimination of the cotton processing tax and the resignation of Secretary Wallace.

The committee was represented as favoring a continuation of the processing tax until a substitute is found instead of abandoning the levy as urged by W. D. Anderson, president of the association, who also called on Secretary Wallace to quit his post.

It was indicated the committee, headed by Donald Comer, president of the Avondale mills in Alabama, would insist upon a specific substitute to provide relief for the cotton farmer before suggesting that the processing tax be scrapped.

The committee, which makes its report to the convention at Saturday's closing session, had before it Wallace's 1934 report to President Roosevelt in which the secretary of agriculture recommended the consideration of possible alternates for the processing tax.

In that report Wallace said the most serious objection to the processing tax was that "the greatest burden falls on the poorer people." He added that it might be possible to obtain revenue necessary for benefit payments to the farmers either by increasing existing federal taxes or by providing some new form of tax.

Two possible sources of revenue, an increase in income taxes and a sales tax, were suggested by Wallace in the report to the president. He suggested the sales tax be applied either to all commodities or to those classified as luxuries.

Comer, second vice president of the association, who is slated to be elevated to the first vice presidency at Saturday's session, said today he would refrain from commenting prior to the committee's report.

In his address to the convention yesterday, Anderson denounced the processing tax, which is levied against the mills and paid to farmers for reducing plantings and delivered a stinging attack on Wallace.

Leaders of the association declined to comment on Anderson's attack, although one, who asked that his name not be used, said it was "regrettable."

McIntyre, who said upon his arrival he was here to do a "lot of listening and no talking," planned to return to Washington late today to report to President Roosevelt.

During Anderson's attack on Wallace and the processing tax, McIntyre received a delegation of South Carolina and Georgia farmers who praised Wallace and urged that the processing tax be retained until an adequate substitute is provided.

The textile men last night witnessed a style show featured by cotton costumes for beach, evening and sports wear. Members of the Augusta Junior league were models.

Lumbermen say the only remaining forest of virgin red cedar in the United States stands near Lebanon, Tenn.

HARRISON'S PLAN OF COMPROMISING BONUS IN DANGER

a conference with the chief executive. While the White House has shied off from definite commitments, President Roosevelt's friends were sure he would sign the bill if sent to him by congress. They have hoped it would solve the question, for the present at least.

In the committee the Republicans voted almost solidly for the Vinson plan rather than the Harrison bill. Even those like Senators Couzens, Republican, Michigan, and Hastings, Republican, Delaware, who flatly oppose cash payment, voted for the Vinson measure in preference to the compromise.

Under present plans of administration leaders, the bonus bill will be called up in the senate Monday. Despite the finance committee's rejection of the full cash bonus plans, they will be offered in the senate as though they had never been voted upon by the committee, has fresh substitutes for the Harrison compromise.

Their submission will bring the issue of cashing the adjusted service certificates to the supreme test. For years it has been apparent the senate would be the real battleground, where the veterans drive would finally win or lose.

President Requested To Release Robinson

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 26.—(AP)—President Roosevelt had a message today signed by J. A. Duerr, commander of the Fort Smith unit of the Veterans of Foreign wars, urging him to let Senate Joe T. Robinson "vote his conviction" on bonus legislation.

The telegram read: "Please do not sacrifice Senator Joe T. Robinson. Release him and let him vote his conviction on the bonus measure."

Arkansas Veterans of Foreign wars, Duerr said, prefer Senator Robinson to Huey Long and do not want to see the Louisiana kingfish capitalize on a split in the Democratic ranks.

Duerr expressed the fear that the Arkansan's "bonus stand" may prove detrimental to Robinson politically. He added that Robinson is respected and admired by state members of the veterans organizations.

Queen Of Good Health Will Be May 1 Feature

Queen of good health will reign on May day at Barkdull Faulk school, it was announced by Miss Julia Wossman, principal, Friday. There is no plan for a May pole and similar observance but rather this time the celebration will take the nature of a good health program.

There will be games and a celebration on the grounds on the afternoon of May 1. The queen is to be chosen through votes of the students. This year there will be no king named.

Fine Program

With a grand program of entertainment scheduled, the Capitol Theater Popeye club will be organized at the Capitol Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Boys and girls 14 years of age and under are eligible to join.

All that is necessary is to fill out the official membership application coupon, which appears on this page, and follow directions.

Admission to the party is 10 cents, which includes a Popeye musical pipe for each member and a great big ice cream cone filled with delicious ice cream made by Clark's pharmacy. Eddie Vann, with his band, and "Crazy Words and Tunes" will be the master of ceremonies and lead the singing of "Popeye" songs. Bob McCoy, manager of the Capitol theater, has arranged a program of screen entertainment that will be the delight of all the kiddies who attend. The film fare includes a "Popeye" cartoon, a "Mickey Mouse" cartoon, the tenth chapter of the serial, "Burn 'Em Up Barnes," and the big feature with Tim McCoy and his exciting adventures as a Royal Northwest Mountie in "Fighting Shadows."

THREE HAMILTON JURORS SELECTED

Original Venire Is Exhausted And Others Are Summoned

JENA, La., April 26.—(Special)—Only three jurors had been selected for the trial of Louis Hamilton, 29, Floyd Miller, 21, and Harmon "Buck" Sheppard, 25, on trial for murder in connection with the death of Hamilton's father, Dr. Fred Hamilton, two years ago, when the original venire of 30 men was exhausted in district court here Friday morning. Judge Wiley R. Jones ordered the remainder of about 80 talesmen whose names were left in the box to be summoned for jury duty and it was believed it would be necessary for the jury commission to be called together to draw additional talesmen.

When the case was called for trial Friday morning both the state and defense immediately announced ready for trial. Judge Jones Thursday refused to grant a severance and trial of the three defendants was ordered for Friday.

Dr. Hamilton's body was found in the charred ruins of his apartment building. The state contends he was killed and the building burned to cover the crime. The defense hopes to show the physician accidentally set the building on fire and burned to death in it.

Young Hamilton, a Tulane university medical student, was suspected of the crime at the time it occurred, but was not indicted by the first grand jury which convened after the tragedy. He was indicted, however, at a recent session of the grand jury.
